Oak Class

We have been reading The Gingerbread Man book which has been very popular. We have done lots of activities around this theme. We really had fun acting out the story and enjoyed sensory play with flour and ginger spice. We also explore some root ginger and had some interesting ideas about what it might be, including a gingerbread man, a potato and a stone. We then all had turns grating it and enjoyed smelling it. We have had lots of fun outdoors too.

Star of the fortnight was Alfie H for trying really hard to share things and for using lovely manners.

Maple Class

What a busy half term it has been! Last week the children learnt about some printing techniques and they enjoyed trying out their new skills. They made their own stencils and used stippling to create different effects. A big well done goes to all the year 2 children who finished their SATs last week. All the children approached the tasks with confidence and all of them did their very best. We are very proud of them.

Star of the fortnight was Lilly C for finding her confidence and trying her very best in all her work.

Silver Birch Class

We can't believe another half term has drawn to a close. We have enjoyed thinking of ways that our decisions have an impact across the world and the little things that we can do to help. Our English text has been The Last Bear and has provoked some great answers to the dilemma of whether the main character helps the polar bear or not. Finally, I must mention how proud I am of the attitude shown by the year 6 children that sat their SATs tests this term. See you in June!

Star of the fortnight is Connie H for her perseverance with her maths and her all-round positivity.
